HOMECOMING COURT 2000

Row 1: D. Buswell, K. Hohnecker, C. Bley Meyer, T. Dodds, S. Gray, M. Green. Row 2: J. Christensen, S. Donaubaauer, N. Mohr, S. Picolet, E. Ernst, C. Haas, T. Beebe, J. Kietzman, C. Hoffman, J. DeLuca, R. Saunders, M. Schrader, C. Green, K. Johnson.

This year's homecoming button was designed by Terri Bartel.

Eric Ernst is big pimpin' with Mem Schrader at his side.

Connor Haas intimidates the innocent bystanders as Stephanie Gray holds on for dear life.

Scott Donaubaauer, Tahlia Beebe, and Shannon Picolet show school spirit by participating in pajama day while Kyle Johnson shows them up with wearing his hat.

Taking Care of Business

Kris Kuhlman runs around the right end for a big gain against the Spartans.

Amy Meyerhoff marches in the parade.

Mrs. Mac McDonald wears the jerseys of a senior football player.

Jeff Johnson, Abbie Eickelberg, Katie Hyde, Erin Judkins, Bria Hyde, David Jansen, Mitch Jansen, Sarah Eckermann, and Anna Iversen decorate the door of B 7.

Stephanie Soenksen tapes Jon Griggs' wrist before the game against Pleasant Valley.

Taking Care of Business

Brook Bowman, Kristen Hulsén, Lauren Cole, and Laura Holst get a good seat for the game. They want to make sure no one gets in front of them.

Grand Marshal Ve Power waves to the large crowd.

Larry Simon and Sarah Anderson read the script for the introduction of the homecoming court before the game.

Deanne Peterson, Rochelle Shively, and Vanessa Meyer.

The band leads the parade through the streets of Eldridge.

Taking Care of Business

Krystie Daley cheers for the sophomore team.

Brittany Hillyer, Alex Holcomb, Katie Heyer, Sarah Hayungs, Mollie Hermiston, and Andrienne Hoffman decorate their DST door.

Brad Kuhl paints his face to show his school spirit

Megan Jepsen escapes the tackle of Lisa Hildebrand during the Powder Puff game.

While riding the senior float, Ryan Weber, J. R. Kuch, and Fred Radunzel participate in the parade.

Taking Care of Business

Jerame Stevens dresses in his uniform of choice.

The Silver Shakers throw candy to the crowd.

The seniors display their new WE DON'T NEED NO EDUCATION shirts as they get pumped up to water down the juniors on the side of the street.

Tonya Ramsey, Jackie Pierick, and Danielle Ploessl decorate their DST door.

Danielle Ferris and Leah Dittmer audition for the Secret deodorant commercial.

When You Say Nothing at All

Chris Melchert loves North Scott.

Homecoming king, Kyle Johnson, rides in style in the 8 track Cadillac.

Stephanie Daine marches, but doesn't play.

Erin Shively proudly stands by her DST decorated door.

Tara Humlick and Mike Allison grind on each other while others get their groove on.

Footprints
One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other in the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the paths of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Is That Your Final Answer?

Imagine you found a secret door. Where would it lead you? Would you bring anyone or anything with you?

"It would lead to Japan. I would try to speak Japanese."
Josh McEnany '04

"It would lead to the Playboy mansion; it would be awesome!"
Bret Lacher '04

"It would lead to the boys locker room full of hot boys! And I would bring Niki Story with me."
Erin Shively '04

"I would go to a candy factory like the chocolate factory on Willy Wonka. I would take bags to fill with candy."
Mike Hermesen '03

"It would lead to the bottom of the ocean.

I would just like to see the bottom of the ocean because not many people have."

Daniel Kelchen '03

"It would lead me and my friends to a room filled with books - diaries of people's lives in the underground railroad. It would be dark and dusty."
Danielle Nuti '04

If you could travel anywhere for any amount of time where would you go? How long? What would you take? What would you do?

"I would go to Hawaii and stay there forever."
Nick Moore '04

"I would to go to Sydney, Australia."

Wayne Paarmann '04

"I would go to Amsterdam for the rest of my life. Just money and the clothes on my back."

Ryan Marshall '04

"I would go to Thailand for at least three months. I would go to the beach and shop."
Jon Nesbitt '03

"I would go to California and live on the beach."
Tara Humlick '03

"I would go back to when Martin Luther King, Jr and Rosa Parks were fighting for blacks. I would be gone for one month. I would take a Volkswagen and all of my personal things. I would help the people in the freedom thingy."

Jessica Ashmead '03

"I would go to Lowden, Iowa. I would stay forever and I would take nothing. I would do nothing."
Jessica Rollins '04

"I would go to France for 1 month. I would bring clothes, pictures, and a camera. I would see the sights and meet people."

Danae Reyman '03

"I would go to Colorado for a long time. I would bring Chris Steffe with me and go skiing."
Lindsey Creedon '03

"I would go to the mall forever as long as there were other people there."
Brittany Petty '04

"I would go to Australia until I felt like coming back."
Tyler Bosworth '03

"I would go to Amsterdam and I would be gone for a month. I would sit at coffee shops."

Tim Mulvihill '01

"I would go to South Padre Island and I'd never come back."
Ashley Balli '03

Is That Your Final Answer?

If you could pack yourself up and mail yourself anywhere, where would you go? Who would you meet?

"I would go to Sesame Street and meet Big Bird."
Emily Soenksen '04

"I would go to Germany and meet Rommel."
Eric Pehler '02

"I would go to Los Angeles and meet some really hot guy."

Carli Larson '04

"I would go to Cuba and visit Fidel Castro."

Kyle Shroeder '03

"I would go to Cancun because it would be awesome."

Bekah Woodard '04

"I would go to Australia and see the Great Barrier Reef. I would meet Crocodile Dundee."

Judi Foster '01

"I would pack myself up and mail myself to Georgia, so I could see my friends Becca and Hannah!"

Bridget VanDenBerghe '04

"I would go to Minnesota so that I could surprise my boyfriend. I'd go shopping at the Mall of America."

Rochelle Shively '01

Imagine stepping into the Incredible Shrinking Machine and coming out only one inch tall. Where would you live? How would you avoid being stepped on?

"I would live in the boys locker room and I would avoid being stepped on by walking on the lockers."

Shae Statser '04

"I would find Stuart Little and I would live with him for the rest of my life."

Jennifer Meyer '04

"If I were one inch tall, I would live in a Barbie House and I wouldn't be stepped on because people don't live in Barbie Houses."

Sarah VanMaur '04

"I would live in an Adidas shoebox!!"

Krystie Daley '04

"I would live in Mr. Clayton's paper clip jar. I would stay off the ground."

Travis Zeimet '04

"I would live inside the walls of a house like a mouse."

Ryan Griffin '03

If you woke up one day and were put in charge of your family, what new rules would you make?

"I would make my parents do all the work."

Justin Shaffer '03

If you could invent a new holiday what would it be called and how would you celebrate it?

"I would invent a National Buy Your Girlfriend Something Really Expensive Day. You would celebrate it by buying your girlfriend and extremely expensive gift and treating her like a princess all day."

Vanessa Meyer '01

If you never had to go to school, what would you do all day?

"Sleep and play video games."

Luke Shaw '03

Imagine you have been asked to make a new toy. What would it do? What would it look like?

"It would be all metal and it would clean my room and do the dishes."

Go Lancers!

Chris,

What a change just 18 years can bring.

You lost the baby fat, and that's a very good thing.

You grew tall and grew some hair,

You learned to work hard and learned to care.

We have loved you for a long, long while.

We're glad you found your winning smile,

It makes people happy and suits you very well.

And we are proud of you, just in case you couldn't tell.

Love, Dad, Mom, Matt, and Stephanie

Thinking

---

*If you think you are beaten, you are.
If you think you dare not, you don't.
If you'd like to win but you think you can't,
It's almost a cinch you won't.*

*If you think you'll lose, you're lost.
For out of the world we find Success begins with a person's will —
It's all in the state of mind.*

*If you think you're outclassed, you are;
You've got to think high to rise;
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can ever win a prize.*

*Life's battle doesn't always go
To the stronger, faster woman or man.
But sooner or later the person who wins
Is the one who thinks they can.*

The Election 2000

After five weeks of hand recounts, court appeals, concessions and retractions, Vice President Al Gore's final concession of the presidency to Texas Governor George W. Bush and his vice presidential running mate Dick Cheney brought an end to one of the longest and most eventful elections in American history.

What happened? The Election at a Glance:

November 7 (Election Day): Shortly before 8 p.m. EST, the major television networks estimate Al Gore and vice-presidential running mate Joe Lieberman the winners.

With a too-close-to-call election throughout much of the nation, Florida becomes the key state in deciding the winner, as the next president will need Florida's 25 electoral votes to win.

November 8: At 2:15 a.m., results from Florida begin to suggest George Bush carries the battleground state. Gore concedes the election to Bush, thinking Bush has at least a 50,000 vote lead. Forty-five minutes later, Gore gets word Bush's lead has shrunk to only a few thousand votes, and retracts his concession.

Due to the closeness of the election, the focus turns to questionable ballots and fair voting practices.

In St. Louis, Mo., a controversy arises over a lower court's ruling to keep the polls open past the 7 p.m. deadline.

In Palm Beach County, Fla., an unexpectedly large number of votes for Reform Party candidate Pat Buchanan lead to questions about the legitimacy of the punch-card-style "butterfly ballot."

November 9: Gore's team requests a hand recount of ballots in four Florida counties, Palm Beach, Miami-Dade, Broward and Volusia.

November 16: Bush's lawyers submit written arguments to the U.S. Federal Appeals Court to end recounts.

November 22-December 8: Hand recounts and legal battles continue, making the word "chad" (the small piece of paper punched out of the ballots) a household word.

December 9: The U.S. Supreme Court halts the manual recounts and sets a hearing for two days later.

December 13: In a public concession speech, Gore states he no longer wishes to prolong the election, and yields the presidency, making George W. Bush the nation's 43rd president, and the first chief executive since Benjamin Harrison in 1888 to claim the office with the majority of electoral votes but a minority of the popular vote nationwide.

Elian Gonzalez, a six-year-old Cuban boy found off the coast of Florida, survived yet another ordeal: the brutal custody battle between relatives in Miami and his father in Cuba. The long struggle culminated in a late-night raid on a Miami home where armed U.S. agents seized Elian by force, putting him in the custody of his father who returned with Elian to Cuba.

In a stunning surprise move, Israeli Prime Minister Ehud Barak announced his resignation. Barak's popularity had dropped during the ongoing conflict between Israelis and Palestinians. Barak stood for re-election, hoping for a vote of confidence from the Israeli People, but lost to Likud party leader Ariel Sharon.

Many thought peace between North Korea and South Korea would never happen, but the past year saw warming relations between the two countries, which are still technically at war. Images of North Korean leader Kim Jong II entertaining South Korea's Kim Dae-jung at a June peace summit in Pyong-yang were considered some of the most surprising news pictures of the year.

Tragedy struck when Air France Flight 4590, one of only 13

Concorde jetliners in use, caught fire upon takeoff and crashed into a small hotel in the French town of Gonesse. The 109 people aboard were killed, as well as four people on the ground.

Hillary Rodham Clinton became the first active first lady of the United States to win an elective office when she defeated U.S. Republican representative Rick Lazio for one of New York's U.S. Senate seats.

Elections in Yugoslavia turned angry when Prime Minister Slobodan Milosevic lost to the people's choice Vojislav Kostunica 35 percent to 55 percent. The election's close margin of error would have warranted a recount, but Milosevic refused to hold another election, declaring himself the winner. The outraged public rallied violently in the streets of Belgrade, and the riots combined with pressure from the U.N. and Russia finally forced Milosevic to concede the election to Kostunica.

A Christmas Day blaze in Central China tore through a shopping and commercial center, killing 309 people. The fire trapped people celebrating at a Christmas dance party as well as construction workers inside the four-story supermarket, shops and disco building in the Henan province of Luoyang.

Violence and tension in the Middle East escalated once again when the USS Cole United States Navy destroyer was attacked while moored in Yemen for routine refueling. Suicidal terrorists on a small boat crept up and bombed the Cole, killing 17 United States sailors and Marines.

Bitter cold and freezing water did not deter an estimated two and a half million people who bathed in India's Ganges River on the first day of a Hindu religious festival. The Maha Kumbh Mela, or Grand Pitcher Festival, takes place every 12 years and sees millions of devotees bathe in the Ganges to purify their sins.

James Perkins, Jr., a former computer consultant, was chosen as the first-ever black mayor of Selma, Ala., with 57 percent of the vote in a runoff election. He defeated long-time Selma Mayor Joseph T. Smitherman, who was going for his 10th re-election.

A 7.6-magnitude earthquake devastated the suburban neighborhood of Las Colinas in El Salvador. More than 600 were reported dead. In Washington state, Salvadoran Americans numbering about 135,000 rushed to organize relief efforts while individuals coped with losing relatives and friends in the Central American tragedy.

As the price of crude oil reached a 10-year high of $34 per barrel, angry truckers and farmers throughout Europe blockaded oil depots and put a chokehold on much of the nation's fuel supply. The high petrol prices led to an unprecedented show of public dissent in European countries, particularly Britain.

year-old entertainer, wife of former football star and Monday night sports announcer Frank Gifford, cited concerns about spending more time with her two young children, son Cody and daughter Cassidy, as reasons for leaving the show. ABC soap opera actress Kelly

Ripa was selected as Gifford's replacement.

The Food Network brought popular Japanese cooking show The Iron Chef to the United States, where it quickly became a cult hit. The theatrical Japanese program featured an unusual combination of WWF Smackdown-type competition and gourmet cooking, pitting the world's best chefs against each other in a culinary battle using eclectic ingredients such as pork belly or giant eel.

Web superstar Napster, founded and created by 19-year-old Shawn Fanning, was pulled into court as the Recording Industry of America sued to stop the extremely successful Internet music file sharing company in aiding the distribution of copyrighted songs. The legal pressure led to a federal court ruling for Napster to stop its users from trading copyrighted material and also to an alliance with German media giant Bertelsmann.

George, the political monthly magazine founded by the late John F. Kennedy Jr., folded in March due to monetary problems. The final issue included a collection of interviews conducted by Kennedy while he was editor.

Two years after announcing he had Parkinson's disease, actor Michael J. Fox made his final appearance on the ABC sitcom "Spin City." Despite his degenerative disease, Fox saw the series through its 100th episode.

Reality-based television shows became a pop-culture phenomenon with the summer debut of CBS's

"Survivor" and "Big Brother." Richard Hatch was the first contestant to survive "Survivor," winning the $1 million grand prize. The shows feature screened contestants placed in real-life situations with no scripts or predetermined outcomes. MTV's "The Real World" was the predecessor to the popular "real" shows, followed by "Who Wants to be a Millionaire," "Greed" and "Making the Band."

New bride Jennifer Aniston may have taken his eligible bachelor status, but People magazine had no problem crowning actor Brad Pitt the Sexiest Man Alive in 2000. Also named Sexiest Man Alive in 1995, Pitt is the first two-time title-holder since the magazine began its "Sexiest" tradition in 1985.

After being diagnosed with testicular cancer, MTV comedian Tom Green of the "The Tom Green Show" aired a TV special documenting his battle with cancer as well as the comedian's lymph node removal surgery. Green hoped televising his experience would help others gain awareness about cancer.

Despite pleas from the band for fans to move back because people were being pressed up against the stage, eight Pearl Jam fans suffocated in a mosh pit at Denmark's Roskilde Festival. A ninth victim died five days later in a hospital. Twenty-five were injured at the four-day festival, where approximately 50,000 people turned out to see 200 bands play.

The Beatles' 1966 record "Revolver" has been named the greatest rock album ever in a poll conducted by the cable music channel VH1. The Beatles capped a list of the 100 best rock albums taken from a VH1 poll of 500 rock journalists and musicians, including Britney Spears, Jackson Browne, Elvis Costello, Roberta Flack and Art Garfunkel. The Fab Four are still topping the charts with "1," a collection of all the Beatles' number one hits.

"The West Wing" set a record for the most Emmys earned by a show in its first season. The NBC political drama won nine Emmys, including outstanding drama, at the 52nd Annual Prime Time Emmy Awards. The show surpassed the record previously held by "ER" and "Hill Street Blues." The NBC comedy "Will & Grace" also turned 11 of its nominations into awards, including outstanding comedy.

Controversial rapper Eminem, a.k.a. Marshall Mathers, got top honors at the ninth annual MTV Video Music Awards, winning the coveted Video of the Year award along with best male video for his signature song "The Real Slim Shady." Eminem's "The Marshall Mathers LP" sold 1.76 million copies during its first week.

Harry Potter mania infected readers around the world. Although Book One of the series, "Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone," was first published in 1997, Y2K saw a mad surge in popularity for the boy wizard. The first four of the seven-book series, released by the end of 2000, sold 60 million copies in 200 countries. The voluminous 734-page "Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire" (book four) packed book houses with a record first printing of 3.8 million copies.

Versions of ABC's hit smash "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire" hit the airwaves in 31 countries, with more on the way. In India, a Hindi-language version became the country's most popular program ever.

After a high-profile bidding war with other filmmakers, Universal Studios finally own the prized rights to Dr. Seuss's popular children's story

"How the Grinch Stole Christmas," when director Ron Howard impressed Seuss's widow with his take on the tale. Comedy icon Jim Carrey stole the show as the nasty green villain. A blockbuster smash, the movie was the highest grossing film of the year.

Film director Steven Spielberg, American creator of "E.T.," "Jurassic Park," "Schindler's List" and "Saving Private Ryan" was given an honorary knighthood in recognition of his contribution to the British film industry. He did not become "Sir Steven," as knighthood per se is only for British citizens, but he was able to put the letters "KBE" after his name, for Knight of the British Empire.

Surgeons at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center performed the first coronary bypass in the United States on a conscious patient. An epidural block numbed the patient's chest so he could speak to doctors during the beating-heart procedure. The 51-year-old man who received the single bypass recovered successfully.

It was a bittersweet victory for scientists when they successfully cloned a dead Asian gaur, an extinct species, and brought it into the world from the belly of a farm cow. The baby bull, called Noah, was born at Trans-Ova Genetics in Sioux City, Iowa, but died shortly after birth. Although Noah died, the project gives hope for ways to save endangered species and resurrect those already extinct.

The first five cloned piglets were presented to the world in April. The pigs were cloned from fetal-pig skin cells and scientists believe that due to the similarities between porcine (pig) and human organs, the techniques used to clone this litter may eventually create a supply of genetically modified pig livers and other organs that would be acceptable to the human immune system.

Researchers from Carnegie Mellon unveiled Nomad, the first robotic planetary rover with onboard intelligence. Previous planetary explorers, such as the Mars Pathfinder, needed human controllers to tell them what to do, but Nomad performs tasks such as snapping pictures, collecting samples and sending data back to earth by itself. Using a laser range finder and spectrometer, the robot analyzes every single rock in its path. Scientists hope to employ future generations of the rover to explore other planets.

After years of dreaming, planning and arguing over who should get the credit, the International Human Genome Project and Celera Genomics put their differences aside and officially announced they have (both) deciphered the 3.1 billion biochemical "letters" of human DNA. The amazing breakthrough will allow scientists vast insight into human health and disease at the molecular level, knowledge that will lead to a revolution in diagnosing and treating everything from Alzheimer's to cancer. The discovery is seen as one of history's great scientific milestones, the biological equivalent of landing on the moon.

A lawsuit was filed when a Chicago man said he suffered adverse allergic reactions after eating Kraft Taco Bell taco shells contaminated with StarLink, a form of bioengineered corn not yet approved for human consumption. The corn was approved for pesticide-resistant animal feed only in 1998, but approval for human consumption was withheld due to the corn's shared characteristics with other foods that caused allergic reactions.

Numerous dot.com companies were pushed to the brink of failure due to poor business planning, intense competition and weak advertising revenue. The year saw nearly 42,000 dot.com company job cuts, billions of dollars in market capitalization lost, and plummeting share prices.

Astronaut William Shepherd and cosmonauts Sergei Krikalyov and Yuri Gidzenko made up the first team to inhabit the International Space Station, taking historic steps toward what NASA hopes will become a permanent living and working space.

Each team will work and live for four months aboard the Russian module Zvezda, conducting biological and technical experiments until another crew replaces them.

Israel-based Given Imaging, Ltd. introduced a 1.18-inch-long pill camera that, when swallowed, can travel through a human digestive tract, transmitting two still images per second to a Walkman-like receiver attached to the person's belt. Within 24 to 48 hours, doctors can download the data and assemble a more accurate and complete video of the intestines than can be taken through the more traditional endoscopy.

More than 10,000 of the greatest athletes from around the world gathered in Sydney, Australia to participate in the 27th Olympiad. Despite being dubbed "the best ever" by leaders of the International Olympic Committee, a 15-hour time difference between the United States and Australia kept many Americans from watching live as the United States came away with an unprecedented 97 medals.

Spectators beheld a dazzling opening ceremony, including the lighting of the torch by Australian runner (and native Aborigine) Cathy Freeman, who was later overcome with emotion when she won the gold for the women's 400-meter race.

Although the games received the lowest television ratings since 1968, many athletes gave inspirational performances.

United States sprinter Marion Jones fell short of her goal to win five gold medals, but still got the gold in the 100 and 200 meter sprints, and the 4x400 meter relay, as well as the bronze in the long jump and 4x100 meter relay, winning the medals in spite of the distraction of husband and shot put world champion C.J. Hunter's positive drug test.

Maurice Green, U.S. sprinter, not only took home the gold, but he also retained the title of "World's Fastest Man" after finishing the 100-meter sprint in 9.8 seconds.

In the water, Laura Wilkinson had a surprise victory over a superb Chinese team to move from fifth place to first and win the first U.S. gold in the women's 10-meter platform in 36 years.

Australian swimmer Ian Thorpe, nicknamed "Thorpedo," broke the world record in the men's 400-meter freestyle relay, finishing in 3:13.67.

On the mat, U.S. heavyweight wrestler Rulon Gardner toppled the undefeated Russian wrestling icon Aleksandr Karelin.

Medal-rich swimmer Lenny Krayzelburg and the U.S. men's relay team won the 400-meter medley relay in 3:33:73, lowering the mark of 3:34.84 set by Americans at the 1996 Atlanta Games. It was Krayzelburg's third gold after victories in the 100- and 200-meter backstrokes.

Having never played each other in the World Series before, the New York Yankees battled the New York Mets in what was dubbed the "Subway Series." Victorious at Shea Stadium, the Yanks defeated the Mets, 4-2, in Game 5 of the Series, becoming the first team in more than 25 years to win three straight titles.

The New Jersey Devils defeated the Dallas Stars, 2-1, in double overtime during Game 6 of the Stanley Cup finals, earning the team their second Championship. The Devils took the best-of-seven series, 4-2. Devils captain Scott Stevens won the Conn Smythe trophy as Stanley Cup playoff MVP.

Defensive player of the year and game MVP Ray Lewis led a defense that intercepted four passes from the Giants and held New York to 152 total yards. The second and third touchdowns on three plays late in the third quarter were back-to-back kickoff returns by New York wide receiver Ron Dixon and Baltimore wide receiver Jermaine Lewis, creating a Super Bowl first.

The Kansas City Wizards downed the Chicago Fire, 1-0, for the MLS Cup at RFK Stadium in Washington, D.C. The win was a surprise comeback for the Kansas City team who finished last in 1999, and had not been to the MLS post-season since 1997. With 10 saves in the Chicago game and a record 16 shutouts in 2000, Wizards goalie Tony Meola had one of the best seasons of any player in MLS history, earning MVP honors from MLS and Honda, as well as Aquafina Goalkeeper and Ace Comeback Player of the Year awards.

The Texas Rangers made shortstop Alex Rodriguez the highest-paid player in baseball history when he agreed to a 10-year, $252 million contract with the team. The 25-year-old All Star previously played for the Seattle Mariners.

After three and a half years off the ice, Hall of Fame hockey center and former team owner Mario Lemieux returned to play center with the Pittsburgh Penguins. Lemieux was responsible for leading the Penguins to consecutive Stanley Cup championships in 1991 and 1992. He also brought the financially strapped team out of bankruptcy last year, becoming the first former player from the four major North American sports leagues to own a team.

champion at Wimbledon since 1958. She and younger sister, Serena, teamed up to win the doubles crown at the All England Club. Williams later went on to win the U.S. Open, and take the gold in both singles and doubles (with Serena) at the Sydney Olympic Games.

Indiana University's volatile basketball coach Bobby Knight was dismissed after 29 years of leading the Hoosiers. Knight was fired for "a pattern of unacceptable behavior" and for allegedly grabbing and swearing at a student, violating the "zero tolerance" policy instituted by university president Myles Brand. Thousands of devastated students protested the decision.

After years of urging recruits to "Be all you can be," The U.S. Army decided it was time to update their image and change slogans. Targeting recruits between the ages of 18 and 24, the Army launched new promos focusing on technology, training, benefits and the individual with the new tagline "An army of one." The old slogan was ranked the second best advertising campaign of the 20th century.

Old Man Winter dealt the United States a heavy blow beginning in late November. Heavy snows covered the Midwest and Northeast throughout the holiday season, and southern states such as Oklahoma, Texas, Arkansas, Georgia, and Florida suffered unusually cold temperatures and heavy ice storms, which damaged crops and caused lengthy power outages for many residents.

Sony's much-anticipated PlayStation 2 game console was released, but much to the disappointment of waiting gamers, a production delay caused demand to far outstrip supply. The coveted console has DVD and CD playing capabilities, advanced graphics, and the capacity to connect to the Internet.

Liz Murray was granted a full scholarship from the New York Times to attend Harvard University. Homeless for several years after her drug-addicted parents lost their house. Murray finished high school in two years while camping out in New York City parks and subway stations. Her single dorm room at Harvard was her first steady lodging in four years.

Timothy McVeigh, the 32-year-old Gulf War veteran convicted of murder in the April 1995 truck bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah federal building, was sentenced to be executed by lethal injection. The bombing killed 168 people in what was considered the bloodiest terrorist attack ever on U.S. soil.

Close-Up is an opportunity for high school students to travel to our nation's capital to learn about the government. While in Washington, D.C. the members of Close-Up visited museums, and even had an opportunity to appear on national television. Throughout the year Close-Up students hold fundraisers in order to pay for their trip. Four students from NS went to Washington, D.C. this year - Erin Denner, Mandy Sebastian, Jami Lavin, and Sara Verhorevoort. These students visited Washington, D.C. in April 2001.
